Witness at the Cross – Lenten Study

Session 4 of our Lenten study will be held on Wednesday, 30th March at 7pm. If you would like to join this session, ask Nicola for the zoom link.

The focus for session 4 is ‘The Beloved Disciple’.

Open home

Nicola and Peter will be hosting an open home, from:

2pm, Sunday 3rd April,
67 Downing Street.

Everyone is welcome. Come and join us for afternoon tea.

Christian World Service – Ukraine Crisis Appeal

CWS, the aid agency associated with the Methodist Church, is appealing for donations to assist people displaced by the war in Ukraine. In Hungary, Poland, Romania, Slovakia and Ukraine, ACT Alliance (Action by Churches Together) is providing water, food, shelter, blankets and more to families who have left their homes, jobs and loved ones. As we are seen on our tv screens, it is cold outside, and many people are traumatised and afraid.

UNHCR reports 3.6 million people have already fled Ukraine and 6.5 million have fled their homes but remain in Ukraine (internally displaced). Nearly one-third of Ukrainians need humanitarian assistance. The people need food, water, shelter, and safety now. If you are able to make a donation, please donate online at: cws.org.nz

Request from August Café

The owners of August Café has asked that church members please use the main entrance when coming into August, not the door in the church foyer. They are asking this as they have made adjustments to their entrance and exit plan looking at minimising and monitoring contacts coming in and out of the kitchen.

Bulletin Contribution

If you have anything for the bulletin, please have it in to the office by 12pm on Thursdays.
