Stewardship target

Great news, we have met our stewardship target for the 2022/23 year. Thank you to everyone for your contributions, which help to support our Parish and 10AM projects. If you're not currently part of the stewardship programme, please speak with Joy Grove for further information, (04) 386 2426.

Messy Matariki,

Messy Matariki is for everyone. The programme will begin at 4pm, this afternoon in the New Hall. There will be activities, stories, games, food, conversation. Please invite your friends and family.

PHOTO COMPETITION

We are looking for a photo that represents who we are as a congregation. So, get out your smart phones, or your camera's and start snapping. The first entry has been received.

All entries will be displayed in the church foyer at the end of the competition.

Entries to be received by Sunday 6th August and sent to nicola@wesleychurch.org.nz

Annual Synod Meeting

We will be meeting in Levin 28th and 29th July. We continue with the focus on So what's the story ...? The Friday evening we will be looking at nominations for the 2024 connexional year, and acknowledging those who have died during the year. The Saturday programme will focus on Co-operating Parishes.

Leaders meeting nominated Nicola Teague Grundy for Synod Superintendent, Alan Dine for the Property Committee and Sarah Laurenson for Synod Secretary.

Parish Working bee

Saturday 29 July, 10am—3pm. You're all invited to come along and lend a hand in getting our halls buzzy clean. If you have time on Saturday (even for a short time) we would love to see you. Lunch will be provided.

Other Notices:

Wellington Organists' Association (WOA)

The Wellington Organists' Association are hosting a workshop to demonstrate how the pipe organ works. In the workshop we will put together a small organ called the WOOFYT which stands for Wooden Octave Organ For Young Technologists. The workshop is aimed at those who are Year 9 to Adults. Fun is definitely guaranteed!

Saturday, July 29th, 1:30-4:00pm, St Augustines Church Hall, 12 Britannia St, Petone (The hall is behind the church)

Admission: A donation of $5 is suggested.
