10AM Notice:

Midyear Show—Shakespeare's Julius Caesar

I'm pleased to announce this year's midyear show will be Shakespeare's Julius Caesar, directed by Alexander Garside and Charlie Hann.

It's a gripping tragedy, characters drawn into terrible deeds by fate.

Key Dates:

1 May - Read through
8 May - First Rehearsal
15 August - Dress Rehearsal
17-27 August - Performances Thursdays to Sundays.

Chris Fisher will be our Production Coordinator.

Please do get in touch with Alexander Garside (021 029 50304), if you'd like to know more, otherwise see you Monday for a 7:30 start!

Other News and Events:

Kaibosh: Give a Meal in May is just around the corner, kicking off on Monday the 1st of May.

This May our goal is to raise enough funds to provide 100,000 meals worth of kai to those in need in the community. With the help from our network of supporters sharing our campaign videos, images and posters, we're confident we can hit this goal!

Ageing without Equity

In every region of Aotearoa, Presbyterian Support is providing social and health services to those who need it most. Recently our Enliven Service Managers identified a growing need among one particularly vulnerable population, poorer older people. To support and inform voter decision-making in the national election later this year, we invited all five major political parties to send their Spokesperson for Seniors and answer our burning question How will we ensure equitable care and enough suitable, stable housing for poorer older people as their population rapidly grows?

Following all five answers a response will be given by the Right Reverend Hamish Gallogway, Moderator for the Presbyterian Church of New Zealand.
