The Last Week

8 part – Lent Study series on Zoom

7:30pm Wednesdays

15 Feb. to 5 Apr. 2023

*The Last Week: 8 part – Lent Study series on Zoom:
7:30pm Wednesdays, 15 Feb. to 5 Apr. 2023*

This 8-week audio series brings to life the key moments leading up to Jesus' death and resurrection and provides space for group & personal reflection.

In conversation with David Dykes and Ann Phelps of Faith and Reason, John Dominic Crossan sets the scene for Holy Week within the context of a volatile Jerusalem into which Jesus arrives on Palm Sunday.

Each episode focuses on one day of Holy Week, starting on Palm Sunday and ending on Easter Sunday. After each recorded discussion, which lasts about 25 minutes, we are given questions to consider. We will share our responses with the group. The Zoom sessions will be no more than an hour.

Nicola Teague Grundy, Hugh Laurenson, Sokopeti Sina and Philip Garside will take turns to lead the sessions.

Please register with Sarah Laurenson if you wish to be part of this Lenten Study series.

FREE 2-day community workshop.

The Living Wage Movement is holding a community workshop. The workshop will focus on the following objectives:

1. Demonstrating how to organise people through common concerns.
2. Illustrating relational organising and the power of intentional conversations.
3. Exploring how we build power with diverse networks of shared purpose.

The training will be led by the lead organiser for the Living Wage Movement, Teisa Unga. Teisa has a wealth of knowledge and practical experience in community organising. She will share her insights and techniques on how to build effective campaigns, engage with community members, and mobilise people to take action on issues that matter to them.

The training will take place on the 24th and 25th March at St Peters on Willis Street.

If you are interested in attending please register through Eventbrite.
