Shirley Hutt

It is with sadness that we note the death of Shirley Hutt, a long time member of our congregation.

Shirley died last Sunday, aged 95.

She is remembered fondly by many of our congregation. Hugh Laurenson wrote a tribute. He said, "Growing up in the 10AM congregation ... I had the privilege of knowing Shirley as a grandmotherly figure. She was constantly warm and positive, cared deeply about the welfare of everyone around her, and was always keen to find out what you'd been up to recently"

We pray that God holds Shirley in the hollow of a loving hand, and that the Spirit of God brings comfort and peace to her family and friends.

Lower North Island Synod meeting 28 - 29 July

The annual Synod meeting to be held in Levin, will begin on Friday evening at 7pm. We will commence with wine and cheese, to be followed by a service to acknowledge those who have given significant leadership in our region and in our congregations.

Please could you:

- advise of names of anyone you would like acknowledged.
- send a photo (that can be projected) of that person.
- Send a brief tribute that summaries their contribution.

It would also be good to let their families know what we intend to do and to see if they would like to be present for this service of acknowledgement.

Please send the information request above to the Synod Secretary, secretary.Lnis@methodist.org.nz by the 20th July.
