The Fijian congregation had their Koroturaga Day (this is a congregation annual event where we come together to celebrate what has been achieved throughout the year and also a break up for the year). It was a good day of singing, feasting and giving.

Our Sunday School break up is this afternoon, we will be having a potluck supper after the Confederecy service. They will also give their final 'coin collection', this is an on going project every Sunday this year, in aim to help Bangladesh children also enjoy Christmas.

Fijian congregation would like to wish you this Christmas season joy, love, peace and a blessed New Year.
