Ministry News

Nicola will be the acting Parish Superintendent while Rev Utumau'u Pupulu is away on extended sick leave. We wish Rev Utumau'u all the best for his recovery.

From 1 February 2025 there will be a new appointment to the Parish, as Nicola will be taking up a new appointment. The Parish is working through the Stationing process.

Joe Taulelei—a message from Nicola

It is with deep sorrow that I let you all know that Joe Taulelei died on Wednesday. He died surrounded by his whanau, surrounded by love. Joe was a member of our congregation for over 70 years. He has been an encourager, a friend, a leader, a man of courage, strength and grace. His contribution to our community over many years was invaluable.

He will be remembered as being a light bearer, also for his sense of humour, and most definitely for his deep faith. A funeral service will be held at Wesley Church in about a weeks' time. As soon as details are confirmed I will let you all know.

In the meantime, our heartfelt condolences and prayers go out to Isa, their children, grandchildren, and whanau.

DCM memorial service Tuesday July 9  Volunteers needed **

On Tuesday 9 July DCM will hold a service in the Old Hall for some of their members who have passed away. They would sincerely appreciate some 10am volunteers to help set out and serve tea, coffee and juice 12 noon. Please let the office know if you are available. Phone 04 384 7695 or sarah@wesleychurch.org.nz

OTHER

DCM Food Collection:

DCM's Pātaka Kai (Foodbank) sustains people in a very practical way, offering both physical and financial support. Sometimes the Foodbank can be an entry point into DCM services – and they can then move beyond kai to try to understand what other supports people may need.

Can you help with:

- Ready meals/soups
- Instant noodles
- Tinned fish
- Baked beans
- Biscuits & crackers
- Pasta and curry sauces
- Muesli bars
- Coffee, tea, milk powder
- Toilet paper
- Toothbrushes
- Toothpaste
- Soap
- Deodorant
- Razors
- Washing powder

Please place your donations in the basket as you come into church. Many thanks for your help from DCM.
